

2014 Iowa Grazing Series

Friday, August 22, 2014

Featured Speaker: Jim Gerrish – American Grazing Lands Services LLC

<http://americangrazinglands.com/index.html>

1:00 p.m. Lee County Extension Office, Donnellson - Grazing Workshop

Pat Wall – Introductions, Iowa pasture and cow calf trends

Jim Gerrish – Improving profits with improved grazing management

Building soil health and recycling nutrients

Moving to “No Hay” system

Grazing discussion

Managing Fescue

Sponsor Updates

Cow calf issues - Justine Stevenson, ICA

Cost share opportunities, Natural Resource Conservation Service

On-farm demo update from Practical Farmers of Iowa

Travel to Mark Hulsebus farm, 2699 Highway 27 South, Donnellson, IA

4:30 p.m. Mark Hulsebus farm – Pasture Tour

Planning a grazing system

Extending grazing, reducing winter feeding

Improving soil health

Maintaining plant diversity, advantages of legumes

Dinner sponsored by Hulsebus family and PFI, prepared by Lee County Cattlemen

Fees:

Pre-registered members of ICA, PFI, or IFGC members - $20 per day, Walk-in members - $30

Pre-registered non-members - $40, Walk-in non-members - $50

Pre-registration:

Lucas County Extension, 48293 Hy-Vee Rd, Chariton, IA 50049 - Joe Sellers 641-203-1270

For more information and details on topics covered each day, visit the iowabeefcenter.com website or contact Joe Sellers at 641-203-1270, sellers@iastate.edu

